* Denotes contracts with firms assisting the City in an ongoing federal investigation. To protect attorney client privilege, amounts paid to firms for the federal investigation are reported on the line titled "Various Law Firms, Invest. Coop/Client Rep."

Unitary contracts are contracts with multiple vendors that are providing the same type of services. Each vendor is allotted a portion of the total contract amount based on units of service provided and level of client need.

* Denotes contracts with firms assisting the City in an ongoing federal investigation. To protect attorney client privilege, amounts paid to firms for the federal investigation are reported on the line titled Various Law Firms, Invest. Coop/Client Rep.

Unitary contracts are contracts with multiple vendors that are providing the same type of services. Each vendor is allotted a portion of the total contract amount based on units of service provided and level of client need.

Unitary contracts are contracts with multiple vendors that are providing the same type of services. Each vendor is allotted a portion of the total contract amount based on units of service provided and level of client need.

* Denotes contracts with firms assisting the City in an ongoing federal investigation. To protect attorney client privilege, amounts paid to firms for the federal investigation are reported on the line titled "Various Law Firms, Invest. Coop/Client Rep."

Unitary contracts are contracts with multiple vendors that are providing the same type of services. Each vendor is allotted a portion of the total contract amount based on units of service provided and level of client need.
